

Career and Achievements

Morgan began his career in 2005, where he achieved the best innovator in computer science. Over the years, he was awarded with the presidential medals for community contributions and driving the entrepreneurial wave in the country. His contributions in computer science have been recognised for developing computer literacy in rural areas.

Impact or Contributions

Morgan has had a profound impact on the entrepreneurship. He is known for establishing accelerators across the country to bring hidden talents and ambitious minds to the world stage. His work has generated impacts in discovering many unicorn companies through scouting and mentorships.